Important to all Women Readers of this paper.

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent, it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmear's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

A good kidney medicine, possessing real healing and curative value, should be a blessing to thousands of nervous, over-worked women.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine will do for them. Every reader of this paper, who has not already tried it, by enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmear & Co., Southampton, N. Y., may receive a sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase the medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.

EDUCATIONAL SURVEY WORK IS COMPLETED

THE STATE DEPARTMENT COMPLETES WORK IN THE CITY OF JANESVILLE AFTER INTENSIVE INVESTIGATION.

SUGGESTIONS GIVEN

Paper Bound Copies Will Be Placed on Sale in This City—Many Prominent Educators Aid in Survey.

After some delay in arranging the material secured, the educational survey of the city of Janesville has been placed in book form and is now ready for sale at the two book lots in this city for those who wish to obtain them to gain the excellent knowledge and findings which are given. This survey of the local schools was undertaken by the state department of education upon the invitation of the local board of education, who deemed that such a survey would aid very materially in advancing the interests of the schools themselves and the community as a whole.

The survey was carried on under the general direction of State Superintendent C. E. Cady and Dr. W. W. Thomsen, supervisor of educational measurements, who had direct charge of the field work and the preparation of the report of the survey. Many other members of various educational institutions also took a part in the service and gave their best efforts to make the survey conducted in Janesville one which would be a model for other cities in the state to follow.

With the printing of the survey in book form and its distribution to the leading educators of the state very favorable comment has been received and articles have appeared praising the work done. Prof. M. V. O'Shea of the University of Wisconsin, in an article printed in the Wisconsin Journal of Education says: "The report of the survey of the Janesville schools, issued by the state department of education, is an illuminating and useful document. Such a survey as this, taken as a whole, could not be made probably by any other department of the state. The bureau of education has been making surveys recently, but we have not seen any work better done than this survey of the Janesville schools."

Janesville is in many respects a typical Wisconsin city educationally and the results obtained here are looked forward to with great interest by other cities. The conditions found here are similar to those which other boards of education face and the solving of them here will mean a big advantage for other boards. The suggestions for improvements given in the survey are fair and just and have as their main purpose the advancement of the school system and the general attitude of the people towards the support and conduct of the schools.

The survey, which has a paper cover, contains 330 pages of interesting and carefully discussed, the conditions explained, and finally the solutions are given in a clear concise form such that any educator or citizen will be able to grasp the facts that were so carefully conducted the survey want to bring home. There are eighteen chapters in the book. The problems are brought forward in the first hundred pages of the book touching upon the high school and the graded schools. Included under this head are the building problems, teachers and salaries, finance, the board of education, and finally the census, attendance, and the remainder of the book deals with the problems of instruction, which are very carefully explained. The minutiae of the results have been pointed out and show that an unusual amount of time and thought was necessary to compile the figures which in every possible manner show where the city of Janesville stands in the line of instruction to their boys and girls.

In order to attain the results, general observations of the classroom of both the high school and graded schools were taken, in addition to the giving of specific tests which would to a great degree set the average standard of Janesville scholarship above the average in instruction.

The last chapter of the book is devoted to a summary and recommendations which the conductors of the survey believe if put into practice would be a great benefit to the school system. As so many educators in all parts of the state had a share in compiling the data and wrote parts of the material, the endorsement that the books are ready for distribution has met with great approval.

The books will be sold for the bare cost of the printing, so that a large number will be sold in the city and well as in all parts of the state. The two book stores in the city will handle them.

BEAUTIFUL FLAG FOR USE ON COURT HOUSE

Recently Purchased by County Board. Staff Must Be Erected on Lawn as One on Top of Building Tapers the Roof.

In answer to a question raised by "An Old Soldier" in yesterday's Gazette, L. A. Nelson, janitor of the court house, stated this morning that a beautiful wool American flag was recently purchased by the county board, but that it could not be flown from the staff on top of the court house for the reason that the swinging of the staff in the breeze would tear the roof. He stated that this had been found to be the case in the past when even small flags were raised from the building and that if the new flag which measures twelve by twenty-four feet were raised the pole would be torn down in only a short time, and the roof would be badly damaged.

The size of the new flag also prevents the hanging of it from the horizontal staff above the entrance to the court house as this staff is only nine feet long.

Mr. Nelson advocates the erection of the sixty-five foot staff which at present is fixed on top of the court house in the lawn in front of the building, either to the right or left. He plans to bring the matter before the special flag committee, of which Supervisor Ferrigno of Beloit is chairman, at an early date and is probable that this committee will take the action which here recommends.

THANKS GAZETTE FOR LIBERTY LOAN WORK

A. E. Matheson, chairman of the publicity committee of the Third Liberty Loan, has written a letter to the Gazette thanking them for the generous work done in the campaign which has just closed. The letter follows:

May 6, 1918.

Gentlemen of the Gazette:

Many individuals and agencies have had a share in our recent Liberty Loan campaign in Rock County, and they are entitled to much credit. Some have been conspicuous for their zeal and ability.

It is curious at this time to recognize the work of the Gazette, not only in the city of Janesville, but throughout the county. The editorial and news columns of the Gazette have been a constant source of information and advice, and the advertising space was used in large quantities on generous terms, the Gazette offering to the use of the committee their lowest minimum space rate, to keep people informed and arouse patriotic sentiment. Gentlemen connected with the editorial and business departments have been interested in their efforts and sympathy.

On behalf of the publicity committee it is a pleasure to make these acknowledgments in writing to Alexander E. Matheson, Chairman of Rock County Publicity Committee.

"THERE'S A REASON"

"GET TOGETHER" THE KEYNOTE OF COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL MEET

Speakers at Big Convention at Methodist Church Ask For United Effort to People—Excellent Talk by Dr. Agnew.

To "get together" was the aim expressed by every speaker at the meeting of the Rock County Sunday School association at its meeting held yesterday at the Caprell Methodist church. It was the keynote of the convention and backed up by earnestness of purpose was the dynamic force of the program.

Dr. Walter Agnew, in his little talk given at the supper table, condensed the message of the convention into a few words when he said: "The time is here when we can live to ourselves; there are big things ahead of us in Christian work, and the time has come when we must 'get together' and make this better our opportunity. Dr. Agnew is educational director at Camp Grant and he brought greetings from the boys of the cantonment to their friends. He said that the boys were 'knaki' 'game,' and in the war to fight to a finish and win. And that there was a bright side to the conflict in the breaking down of lines of prejudice and making the nation into one people."

He said that splendid things are to grow out of this war in religious life. The Catholics and the Protestants were all working in complete harmony among the men evoked camp. The patriotic spirit was promoting education, religion and better business ideals, and as far as the money consideration was concerned, the war already won it had cost. Of the lives of the men were too precious to be reckoned in the struggle.

In his evening address Dr. Agnew took for his topic, "Agencies for Religious Education," and gave a most interesting and forceful talk along that line. Among these he placed the church, the school, the home, the YM and YWCA, and the Sunday school. He quoted that passage of Deuteronomy which says, "Now teach these things to your children." He deplored the great loss of the Jewish people in the past, since the time when it used to be the center of all activities of domestic life. He considered the Jewish people as the greatest of all people, main strength of the Jewish people, and that they taught religion to their children. They had no religion, and had had no language entirely their own, and yet they had the most intense loyalty and cohesion.

The next force which Dr. Agnew quoted as a religious force was the Sunday school. He said that the Sunday school is as serious as the day school. He predicted that the next ten years would see great changes in education and that the Sunday school should be Christian in character and in this respect he advanced his third agency for religious education, which was the Christian college or even the small academy. These schools, he said, had done splendid work all over the country in training leaders in religious thought and action. In demonstrating the different point of view, held by the secular school and the religious school, he said that the religious school was training the pupils to make a living, and the religious school was training one to live a life.

He closed with a plea for help and encouragement in the great task of keeping the young people safe. Mr. Rogers, the secretary of the Wisconsin Sunday School association, also gave an address in the evening on "Working Together," which gave an idea of the work outlined by the association for the next year. He mentioned that the next year, and what was expected from each county in the state in regard to work. He brought the latest information in regard to work outside this country, mentioning the Sunday school of South America as being especially promising. Also he explained the lessons outlined by the International Sunday School association, and the plans made by them to advance the work of the association along various lines. Father Williammann conducted the opening exercises at the evening meeting and led in the singing, while the president of the Rock county association, C. A. Finn of Beloit, presided at the meeting.

At the opening session which began at 1:30 the president made an opening report of the work of the organization. Rev. F. J. Turner of Beloit gave a talk on "The Adult Bible Class." He said that he contended that the Sunday school should include all members of the family for serious study of God's word. He spoke of the work of several adult classes whom he knew and of the different activities of the church which they had forwarded. The Bible class in one church in Beloit had made the recent dry campaign to see that the dry petitions were circulated among the voters of the city. They also had a "goose team," which went out to small towns and organized Bible classes among the men of the district.

Mr. Galbraith, also of Beloit, gave a description of the method used in his church in organizing a "Teachers' Training Class." They had thirty-one members, met every week after prayer meeting and used a text book for instruction along that line. F. W. Hawkins of Ellettsburg gave a plea for organization in Sunday school work. He emphasized the thought that while the day schools were teaching facts, the Sunday school was giving inspiration for living the life. He mentioned the fact that both boys and girls like their play and work to be in groups or gangs, and that the Sunday school must recognize that thought and plan for it.

The county secretary, L. A. Markham, stated that there were forty-four schools connected with the organization. He contended that there must be eleven of them come up to one hundred percent in efficiency. He asked for more complete reports from Sunday schools of their work. The afternoon was finished by conferences held in several rooms where problems concerning the work of the association were discussed. The meeting was closed by Miss Clementary Fern Cook of Beloit, of secondary school work. Supper was served in the Baptist church by about one hundred people at 6:30 o'clock. The meetings continued today with sessions both forenoon and afternoon. About fifty visitors from outside the city were present yesterday at the meetings.

A. boys who have entered the services of the government are requested to send the names and the branch of service to the secretary.

TWO BADGER BASEBALL STARS ENTER SERVICE

Madison, Wis., May 9.—The University of Wisconsin baseball team will lose the services of Hancock, first baseman, and Nash, third base candidate, after Saturday's game with the University of Chicago at Chicago. Both men will join the fourth officers' training camp. Hancock was captain of the football team last fall. Nash only recently became eligible for the baseball team. The loss will cripple the Badgers, who have the majority of their conference games still to play.

LA JOIE DECISION WAS BASED ON LEAGUE RULE

[BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS.] New York, May 9.—The National Commission was eminently fair in handing down the decision which made Larry LaJoie a free agent. The great Frenchman, who has accepted the management of the Indianapolis club, had his freedom coming to him, and had the commission made any other decision he would have quit the game, for which no one would blame him.

But there was a colored gem in the woodpile that McCaffery did not figure on. It was in the form of a rule agreed upon several years ago when the national commission granted a number of concessions to the Players' Fraternity.

The rule stipulates on certain conditions that a class AA player shall be a free agent after serving five years with class AA or major league clubs, and it was upon this rule that LaJoie based his case. He won it hands down, and had he been on his side of the fence, there are few veterans—a very, very few—who enjoy the fame and popularity that Larry LaJoie was a major league star for twenty long years. In all that time he was never with a pennant winner, but, like Walter Johnson, who seems to be anchored to a loser for life, LaJoie went along from year to year, ranking as an individual star and playing the best baseball there was in him.

BRITISH SOLDIERS TO MAKE STUDY OF BOXING

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] London, May 9.—Boxing is to be an essential part of the training of every British soldier henceforth. The average training period of the British recruit now is not more than six months, but several hours each week will be devoted to boxing, partly in an effort to counteract the deadening influence of continuous drilling and partly because boxing is regarded as the best possible means of developing the 'combative spirit' in soldiers.

During the present summer a comprehensive program of boxing instruction will be carried out in every training camp in England, and American soldiers who are in camps here

Edgerton News

Edgerton, May 9.—E. J. Springer, Chief of Police has submitted his annual report to the Council for the work done by the police department, for the past year. The report shows 180 arrests during the year, of which 143 were for drunkenness, 4 for driving an auto in an intoxicated condition, 2 black-listers to testify where they procured liquor, for procuring liquor for a prohibited person, making a total of 148 out of the 180 arrests, due to booze, which the good citizens of Edgerton decided was no longer necessary for the good of Edgerton, and which goes out of Edgerton for the first time in 34 years, July 1st. The other 31 arrests were as follows: auto speeding 4; driving auto without lights 1; assault and battery 4; driving auto with open muffler 4; larceny 3; insane 2; Bastardy 2; Forgery 1; burglary 1; army deserter 1; disorderly conduct 1; confidence game 1; incorrigible 1. Of the 180 arrests 112 were made by chief of police Springer, 44 by the night officer Campbell, 19 by Wm. Stewart extra officer and 5 by Roy Webster an extra man. The city of Edgerton is proud of the fact that it has one of the best officers in the state, in the person of chief Springer.

The 3rd Rank Team of the Edgerton K. P. Lodge No. 146 competed in the contest at Janesville last evening. The other teams there, represented Beloit, Evansville, Broedhead and Janesville. The work of the team was very satisfactory. About 30 members of the local lodge were in attendance.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Wm. Condon took place at the church last evening. Mrs. Condon was the pioneer resident of this city and at the time of her death was past ninety years of age. She is survived by one son, Thomas, who is a resident of Janesville.

Who's going to stop them there Giants? Manager McGraw's National league entry started out with a domestic squabble, as the descriptive writers say. And to date their speed hasn't been seriously retarded. The Dodgers, Braves and Phillies proved reasonable soft—so soft, in fact, that the wretched Giants may make a runaway race of the pennant chase. A runaway race is bad enough at any time. But this year, with the game facing the acid test, it would be a most unfortunate occurrence.

And yet the New Yorkers are unquestionably the class of the old league, and with any sort of luck at all McGraw should finish in first place with many points to spare. The Giants are getting more than their share of luck, too. Look at the wonderful comeback Larry Doyle has made on second base. Dave Robertson, a star outfielder, retired. Did it hurt McGraw? No, it helped him, because he picked up young Ross Young, a former Robert's job and every effort in the National league agrees the San Antonio boy is a much better man than Dave. Moreover, the Giants stand to lose fewer men in the subsequent drafts than any other club in the league. On dope, then, the Giants look unbeatable. Worse still, the race won't even be close unless the Cubs or the Reds succeed in developing a sharper defense and a more powerful offense than the present outlook promises. But this is only May and many things can happen between now and October. Maybe all the Giants will fall down and break their legs!

Slim Caldwell has promised to win thirty games for the Yankees this season. Slim is the most promising young pitcher on Miller Huggins' payroll.

If the Giants do succeed in making a joke of the old league campaign this summer they should come very close to fracturing record the Cubs made back in 1906, when Frank Chance's boys won the flag with a mark of 763, winning 116 games and losing thirty-six. No club in the major leagues before or since has ever equaled this record. To win 116 games a club must outclass the rest of the league. The Cubs of 1906 stood heads and shoulders beyond their company. Apparently the Giants of 1918 stand just as far beyond the rest of the league as Chance's record makers did. The Giants broke the consecutive game record in the Providence club in 1916. The Providence mark had stood for thirty-six years. Now they seem to be after the season's games won record of the Cubs of 1918.

DO YOU KNOW THAT average salary of 170 ball players employed by National league in 1917 was $4,000?

Ad Wolgast, former boss of the lightweight division, has filed suit demanding an accounting of the money now being spent by his wife, Mildred, and of the money being earned by the heavyweight boxer, Fred Fulton. Wolgast alleges that before Fulton came into the limelight he invested money on both Fulton and his manager, Mike Collins, which would give him a share of the current earnings.

Apparently Johnny Erbe, who lost the bantamweight crown to Pat Moore, the Memphis midge, isn't as successful as a manager of boxers as he was a boxer. Johnny took hold of his younger brother Mike, who is also a bantam, and groomed him for a couple of important bouts. The really serious engagement Mike had was with Joe Burman, a coming eastern bantam; Burman won easily, and at one stage of the fight had his opponent near a knockout.

DO YOU KNOW THAT Fleider Jones of the lowly Browns is the highest salaried manager in the American league and that he gets $20,000 for six months' work?

DO YOU KNOW THAT Dick Rudolph, the midget pitcher, is the only built-headed hurler in the majors.

SUPREME COURT TAKES RECESS UNTIL MAY 21

Madison, Wis., May 9.—The supreme court has taken a recess until May 21, when it will take up the trading stamp cases. While a number of cases were argued at the recent alignment of the court it is not probable that decisions will be announced until early in June.

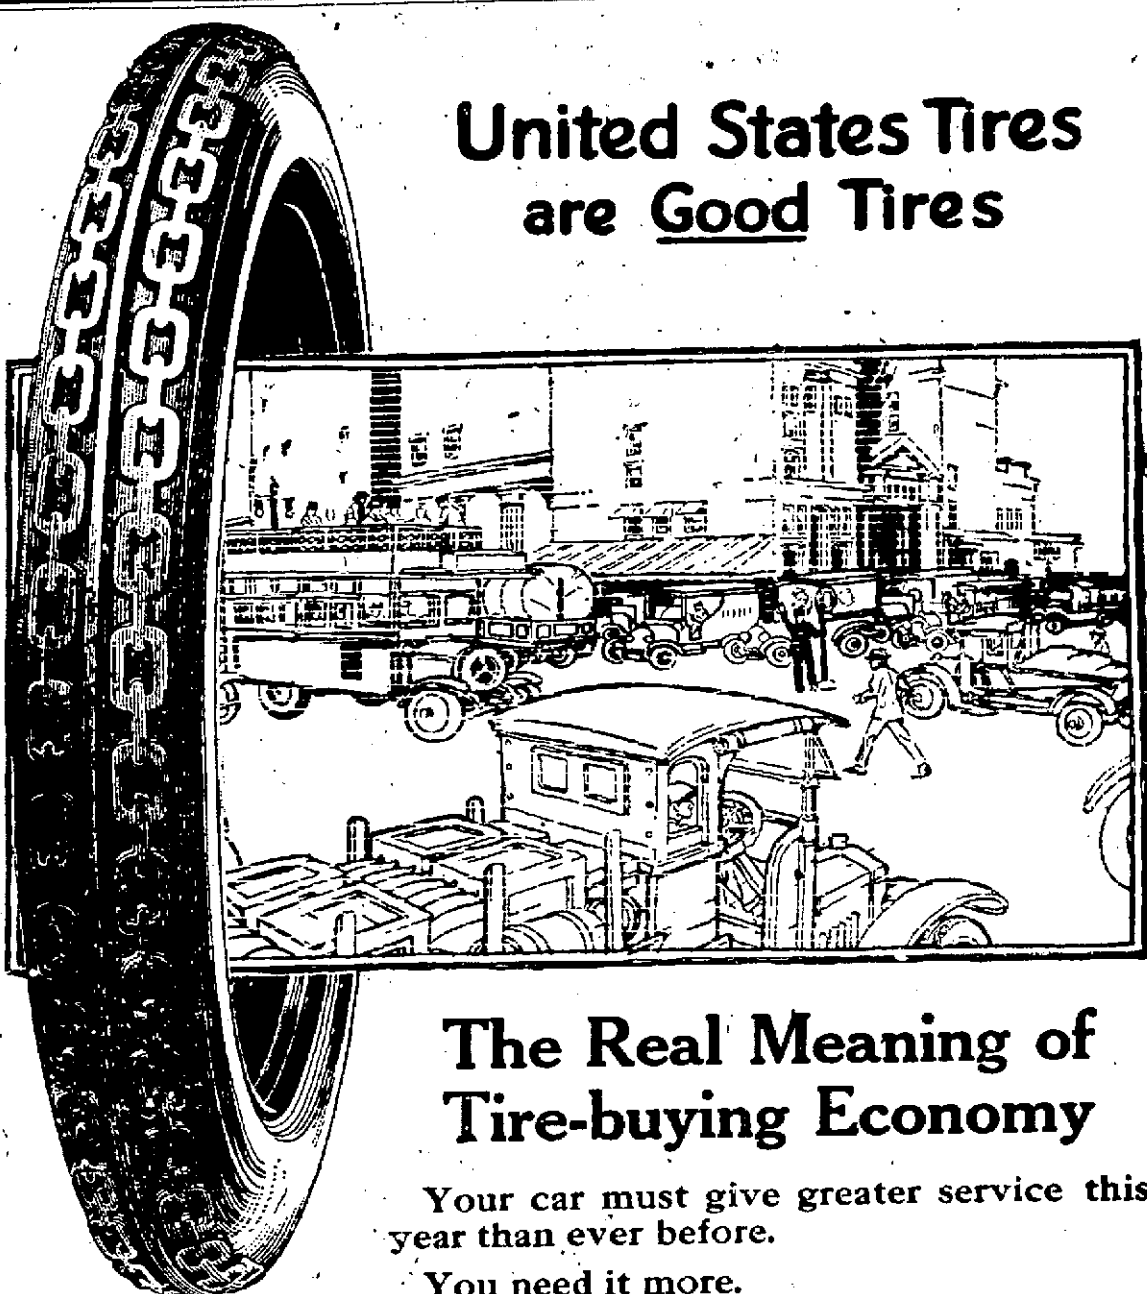

The trading stamp is an application of the Downey-Farrell company to restrain Dairy and Food Commissioner Weigle from enforcing the rule requiring the company to redeem its coupons in this state through its dealers in cash. Testimony was taken before County Judge A. G. Zimmerman and this will be submitted to the supreme court on May 21. This is the first time that a proceeding of this character has been conducted in this court.

TITTEMORE WILL OPEN CAMPAIGN NEXT MONTH

Madison, Wis., May 9.—J. N. Tittmore, farmer candidate for governor on the republican ticket, will not formally open his campaign until early in June. He said that he would spend the meantime organizing local branches of the farmers' equity.

"The men all over the state are busy," said Tittmore, who was here today. "I find that the farmers are taking a greater interest than ever before in politics. For the beginning of a campaign I am receiving much more encouragement than I had anticipated. Once the campaign is formally launched I will make a speaking campaign in all sections of the state."

Motion picture fans will be glad to know that Anita Stewart, one of the most beautiful of the screen stars, is returning to the Vitagraph studios to start work on a forthcoming picture. Miss Stewart has been ill for some time and numerous inquiries have been made as to why, how and when she would return to the land of the cinema.

"The 'Mind the Paint' Girl," a delightful English satire by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero, will be the first of her new releases. Vernon Steele will be her leading man.

Miss Stewart is only twenty-three years of age and has already achieved success worthy of a person twice her age. She was born in New York and has lived there the greater part of her young life. She entered upon her screen career at the age of seventeen, playing minor parts with the Vitagraph company. Her first director was the famous Ralph W. Ince and a great deal of her success she thinks is due to his tutoring.

She worked and studied and played extras for almost a year before she was given a chance at a leading part. Then she played the lead in "The Wood Violet." In a month she had become famous and finally she was cast for the big features only.

She is an expert at all of the things which a motion picture actress must be able to do, such as ride, motor, swim and sail. She is famous for her wardrobes and her perfect style taste as well as for her beauty and acting ability.

Just one look at her picture would be enough to assure anyone that she has a sweet and friendly disposition, and that she is "easy to work with" as one of the Vitagraph property men once said of her.

"MOTHER" MAURICE DIES
Mary Birch Maurice, Vitaphone's grand old lady, who had the title of "mother of the films," died last week at the home of her relatives in Port Carbon, Pa. Mrs. Maurice was known to more motion picture lovers, perhaps, than any other "mother" on the screen, and all of her work was done with Vitaphone, her last job being that of a nurse in "Over the Hills and Far Away." She was seventy-four years old and had been in pictures since 1910. Her entire stage experience covers fifty-one years.

Question: Do you have information to give away? I want to know what to do with my apple trees. I have four and I am anxious to have them bear abundantly and fruit of quality. Is it true that spraying will increase the yield and quality of the fruit? If so, please, tell me just how to proceed.—C.

Answer: If you send your inquiries to the editor of the Gazette, he will do his best to give you the desired information, and in this case he advises spraying the apple trees. The experience of years has proven conclusively that spraying of fruit trees is a profitable proposition, resulting in more fruit of better quality. To be sure, in the hands of amateurs it has often failed, not because it is difficult, but because the operator did not understand just what sprays to use to accomplish the desired results at the proper time to make the application.

To be successful one should know why apple trees should be sprayed. Apple trees, in common with other fruit trees, have various diseases and insect enemies. The spraying is done to protect them and a spray that will destroy an insect enemy may not touch a fungous disease and vice versa. A spray for an insect enemy must be applied when the insect is on the tree in such a way that it may be reached by the application. The most common diseases of the apples in this vicinity are the Scab and Brown Rot and Mildew. These are all fungous diseases and are combated with a spray of lime sulphur or bordeaux. The insect enemies are abundant, including the apple maggot, codling moth and canker worms, curculion, caterpillars and cutworms.

These warm days have been bringing out the green and the apple trees and the blossoms will soon appear. Before they open, but after the leaf clusters have opened, the first remedy is to spray with lime sulphur or to use commercial lime sulphur one to forty parts of water, for scab and other fungous diseases. This can be done at the rate of a tablespoonful to a gallon of lime sulphur mixture. This is for the curculio, the barkworm, and other insects. On examination of the opening buds show the presence of plant disease there should be added to this mixture nickel sulphate part to

Many people think they have done their duty to the tree if they spray them when in bloom. This should not be done. The next day the petals will be given just the same things as before and for codlin moth. Two weeks to eighteen days later another application should be made. Another should be given about July 25. It should be spraying should be done on a still day, or one cannot control the direction of the spray in a wind. It should be done when there is no prospect of rain for a day or two.

Select the spray pump with a pump, choosing a good make that will throw a stream with sufficient force (100 to 25 pounds pressure) to reach every part of the tree. If the trees are large an extension rod is necessary to reach the higher branches.

Apply at the high school for bulletins giving further information, about praying. They are for free distribution and give details of the spraying mentioned above and others later in the season.

Question.—Have you any boys left

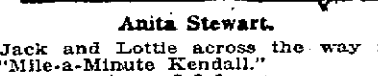

Question.—I want to know what

Answer.—For apples see the answer given above. For raspberries little can be done in the way of spraying on the old bushes. For new bushes Bordeaux is recommended to prevent anthracnose. It is rather late now for that, as it should be given early in the season. Use the same spray for currant bushes as for the apples, for they are subject to fungus diseases and to aphids. The chief enemy to the currants is the common currant worm which makes its appearance a little later in the season. A sharp watch should be kept for this pest which makes its first appearance in the lower part of the bush, usually after a day or two of wet weather.

Unless discovered and promptly checked the bush may be stripped of leaves in a very short time. The arsenate of lead spray is an effective remedy for the currant worm.

Never before such bargains in used "new" cars

USE does not hurt an automobile. In fact any machine is the better for having been used.

The only thing that USE hurts is the price. No matter how good a car is, it depreciates in price once it's been used. For you this means many an unusual opportunity to get 100% value at a 40% SACRIFICE.

Read Gazette "For Sale Automobile" ads. Reliable dealers and private owners use this means to reach you. Don't buy your car from a curbstone broker. Get it thru a Gazette Classified Ad from a source you know to be reliable.
